

A resolution honoring and commending

KEVIN W. CANAFAX

for his service to the Council on Postsecondary Education and the people of Kentucky

WHEREAS, Kevin W. Canafax served on the Council on Postsecondary Education from December 2004 through November 2008; and

WHEREAS, Kevin has contributed his creativity, energy, passion, and skill to furthering the Council's mission and vision; and

WHEREAS, Kevin has given generously of his time by serving on key Council committees, including the Executive Committee, Strategic Committee on Postsecondary Education, and the Budget and Finance and Research, Economic Development, and Commercialization Policy Groups; and

WHEREAS, Kevin's time on the Council has been only one example of his service to the people of Kentucky that includes membership on the Northern Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, Metropolitan Club, Ensemble Theatre, and the board of directors of St. Luke Hospital; and

WHEREAS, Kevin's vivid and cherished memories of growing up in his hometown of Newport, Kentucky, and his commitment to the northern Kentucky area have fueled his desire to pursue a variety of interests leading to careers in broadcasting, tourism, and business development, and have taken him to Fidelity Investments where he is involved in the corporation's regional college, community and government relations efforts, business and workforce development, and employee and consumer communications for the Greater Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky region; and

WHEREAS, the Council is heartened by the knowledge that, even though his formal service has ended, Kevin Canafax will always be a trusted and valued colleague in the cause of education reform;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council on Postsecondary Education does hereby adopt this resolution January 16, 2009, thanking Kevin W. Canafax for his service to the Council on Postsecondary Education and his commitment to improving the lives of the people of Kentucky.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'John S. Turner', written over a horizontal line.

John S. Turner, Chair

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Richard A. Crofts', written over a horizontal line.

Richard A. Crofts, Interim President