

News from the Association of Independent Kentucky Colleges and Universities July 2010

Representatives from Alice Lloyd, University of the Cumberlands, and Union College, along with several of the community colleges in the Pikeville area, will join Pikeville College in presenting information to the Council members at the information session Thursday afternoon, July 22.

The annual report from AIKCU will be given at the September 12 CPE meeting.