Discuss President
Evaluation Survey
Responses

The purpose of the meeting was to open and review the responses to the surveys pertaining to President King's annual evaluation.

Pre-postage paid envelopes were provided to each member of the various constituents groups in order to return completed surveys to Blue & Co., LLC, the Council's independent certified public accounting agency. The surveys remained unopened at the accounting agency's offices until the Executive Committee met June 8.

- 59 surveys were sent out; 36 were completed.
- 13 members of the General Assembly were given the opportunity to respond; 3 responded.
- Governor Beshear and three of his staff were given the opportunity to respond; 1 response was received from the Governor's office staff.
- 8 university presidents, the KCTCS president, and the AIKCU president were given the opportunity to respond; 7 responded.
- 16 Council members were given the opportunity to respond; 15 responded.
- 10 CPE senior staff were given the opportunity to respond; 5 responded.

Governor Patton retained a copy of the survey responses to prepare a summary for the Executive Committee to review at its June 10 meeting. Ms. Miller retained the original set.
