

Essential Skill 4: Interact effectively with others

Graduates will demonstrate both self-awareness and appreciation of people with other perspectives, as well as the ability to collaborate, communicate, and work respectfully with others.

Benchmark College Entry	Milestone End of Two Years of College	Capstone Bachelor's Program Completion
Shows foundational self-awareness by articulating own perspectives and lived experiences.	Identifies how one's own perspectives and lived experiences impact relationships.	Articulates insights into one's own perspectives and lived experiences that create openness to positive interactions with others.
Recognizes how perspectives impact interactions.	Identifies positive ways to interact with people.	Creates positive interactions with people.
Demonstrates awareness of the existence of multiple perspectives, ideas, and beliefs.	Identifies multiple perspectives, ideas, and beliefs through interactions.	Engages effectively with individuals by applying insights about one's own perspectives and beliefs to relate to individuals and bridge differences.