

2025 STUDENT SUCCESS SUMMIT ELEVATING HIGHER ED THROUGH TRANSFORMATIONAL LEADERSHIP

FEBRUARY 10-11, 2025

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY GATTON STUDENT CENTER
160 AVE. OF CHAMPIONS, LEXINGTON

The Kentucky
Student Success
Collaborative

DAY 1 AGENDA

FEBRUARY 10, 2025

1:00-2:30 p.m.

Rm 212 ABC

Welcome Remarks

YOU ARE IMPORTANT TO KENTUCKY'S STUDENT SUCCESS

Kentucky has a strong commitment to advancing student success and has implemented a number of policies and initiatives that have made significant impact on outcomes. CPE President Aaron Thompson will share progress data on several key metrics, celebrate the state's successes, and highlight areas where further challenges remain.

Dr. Aaron Thompson
President
Council on Postsecondary Education

Opening Keynote

FROM SEAMLESS ADMISSIONS TO SEAMLESS TRANSFER: WHAT'S GOING ON IN LOUISIANA

Dr. Tristan Denley is known as a national leader for his work in data-driven education redesign. In this session, Denley will focus on the state's work to create seamless transitions for students from admissions to transfer, as well as policy changes and innovative practices that have proven to improve accessibility, reduce barriers, and streamline transfer pathways.

Dr. Tristan Denley
Deputy Commissioner for Academic Affairs and Innovation
Louisiana Board of Regents

Initiative Spotlight

MERGING PATHWAYS FOR STUDENT SUCCESS

Dr. Lilly Massa-McKinley, leader of CPE's Kentucky Student Success Collaborative (KYSSC), will provide an update on KYSSC's work and outline how the annual Student Success Summit is the anchor and driver of important work to come.

Dr. Lilly Massa-McKinley
Assistant Vice President
Kentucky Student Success Collaborative
Council on Postsecondary Education

2:30-3:00 p.m.

NETWORKING & TRANSITION BREAK

Please be mindful of the event staff lowering partitions between rooms 212 A, B, and C.

DAY 1 AGENDA

FEBRUARY 10, 2025

3:00-4:00 p.m.

CONCURRENT BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Please choose one of the four breakout sessions to attend; sessions will repeat once.

Harris
Ballroom
(3rd floor)

DUAL ENROLLMENT AS A COLLEGE-GOING AND COLLEGE-SUCCESS STRATEGY (CONNECT THE PATH)

Aurely Garcia Tulloch, co-author of the DEEP Insights report, will share her personal education journey and the best practices institutions should use to improve access to dual enrollment programs. She will also talk about her research on dual enrollment student needs, and how institutional policies and practices can be strengthened.

Presenter

Aurely Garcia Tulloch

Senior Research Assistant

Community College Research Center (CCRC)

Rm 212A

FACULTY MINDSET IMPACT ON STUDENT ACADEMIC SUCCESS (CHART THE PATH)

Dr. Chris Hulleman, professor at the University of Virginia and director of Motivate Lab, specializes in motivation research aimed at enhancing learning and well-being. In this session, Hulleman will explore the concept of Faculty Mindset and how instructors should implement strategies to cultivate Growth Mindset, Purpose, and Belonging in their courses to improve academic success and help close gaps among students.

Presenter

Dr. Chris S. Hulleman

Professor of Education and Public Policy, University of Virginia

Founder and Director, Motivate Lab

Rm 212B

IMPACT OF BELONGING & BASIC NEEDS ON MENTAL HEALTH (CONTINUE THE PATH)

Dr. Erica Riba of The Jed Foundation leads projects aimed at fostering mental health and suicide prevention in higher education. In this session, Riba will examine how belonging and basic needs influence student mental health and wellness. She will also share proactive strategies for supporting students and addressing mental health challenges before they escalate.

Presenter

Dr. Erica Riba, Ed.D., LCSW

Director, Strategic Higher Education Initiatives

The Jed Foundation

DAY 1 AGENDA

FEBRUARY 10, 2025

3:00-4:00 p.m.

CONCURRENT BREAKOUT SESSIONS (CONTINUED)

Please choose one of the four breakout sessions to attend; sessions will repeat once.

Rm 212C

COMMITTING TO QUALITY: FOR STUDENTS, THE ECONOMY AND DEMOCRACY (COMPLETE THE PATH)

Dr. Carol G. Schneider is a leading advocate for improving academic quality in higher education. In this session, Schneider will discuss the need to broaden the definition of student success, to include the challenges students will encounter in the workplace and society. Schneider will also share research on high-impact practices that enhance both graduation rates and students' readiness to thrive as professionals and active civic participants.

Presenter

Dr. Carol Geary Schneider

President Emerita

American Association of Colleges and Universities (AACU)

4:00-4:15 p.m.

TRANSITION BREAK

4:15-5:15 p.m.

CONCURRENT BREAKOUT SESSIONS (REPEAT)

Each of the previous sessions will be repeated in the same locations.

Harris
Ballroom

Dual Enrollment as a College-Going and College-Success Strategy (Connect the path)

Rm 212A

Faculty Mindset Impact on Student Academic Success (Chart the path)

Rm 212B

Impact of Belonging & Basic Needs on Mental Health (Continue the path)

Rm 212C

Committing to Quality: for Students, the Economy and Democracy (Complete the path)

5:30-7:30 p.m.

CELEBRATING KENTUCKY'S TRANSFORMATIONAL LEADERS

After the final breakout session, attendees are encouraged to reconvene in the pre-function and plenary space for a networking reception and dinner. Following dinner, CPE will recognize Kentucky's Education Transformational Leaders for their significant achievements during the past year. Cash bar opens at 5:30; dinner begins at 6:00 p.m.

DAY 2 AGENDA

FEBRUARY 11, 2025

8:00-8:45 a.m.

Rm 212 ABC

NETWORKING BREAKFAST

Join your fellow attendees for a hot breakfast and conversation. The buffet will close 10 minutes prior to the morning session.

9:00-10:30 a.m.

Rm 212 ABC

Student Panel

KENTUCKY COLLEGE ADMISSIONS: A STUDENT VOICE PANEL

Back by popular demand, day two of this year's Summit kicks off with the highly anticipated student panel, featuring four high school seniors from GEAR UP Kentucky schools. Moderated by Lena Blackstock from Process/Practice Studio, the panel will delve into their college admissions journeys and offer valuable insights on ways to improve the process.

Welcome Remarks
Kim Welch
Executive Director
GearUP Kentucky

Presenter & Moderator
Lena Blackstock
Partner and Managing Director
Process/Practice Studio

Student Panelists

- Athelia Buckler, senior at Robertson County High School
- Raegan Daniels, senior at Mercer County Senior High School
- Katie Davis, senior at Paris High School
- Michael McLoney, 2023 graduate of Mason County High School & second-year student at Morehead State University
- Hayden Townsend, senior at Bath County High School

10:30-10:45 a.m.

TRANSITION BREAK

Please be mindful of the event staff lowering partitions between rooms 212 A, B, and C.

DAY 2 AGENDA

FEBRUARY 11, 2025

10:45-12:00 p.m. CONCURRENT BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Please choose one of the four breakout sessions to attend; sessions will not repeat.

Rm 212A

FOSTERING TRANSFER STUDENT SUCCESS: BUILDING BELONGING ON CAMPUS (CONNECT THE PATH)

What can two- and four-year institutions do to better support transfer students and foster a sense of belonging? What support systems do students depend on during their transfer journey, and what gaps still need to be addressed? This engaging session features a dynamic student panel who will share their personal stories and shed light on the challenges and rewards of adjusting to new academic settings.

Presenter

Dr. Dawn Offutt

Executive Director of Access,
Engagement & Belonging,
CPE

Presenter

Stephanie Cheung

Associate Director for Transfer Strategy,
KYSSC/CPE

Moderator

Darryl "Dee" Parker

KYSSC Graduate
Fellow

Student Panelists

- Ella Bewley, Murray State University
- Dania Britt, University of Louisville
- Adisyn Donk, Northern Kentucky University
- Ben Moore, Bluegrass Community & Technical College
- Kayla Morgan, Northern Kentucky University

Rm 212B

DUAL CREDIT & GATEWAY COURSE SUCCESS (CHART THE PATH)

Dual credit courses offer high school students a chance to earn college credit, but how do they affect success in critical gateway courses? This thought-provoking session, featuring experts on data analysis, policy and practice, explores that link through data, strategies, and group discussions. Attendees will learn how these pathways impact student readiness and success, with practical takeaways for curriculum design and institutional policy. Ideal for educators, administrators, and policymakers focused on academic planning and student success.

Presenter

Dr. Chris Ledford

Director of Data and Analytics, CPE

Presenter

Ashley O'Neil

Associate Director of Gateway Course Success
KYSSC/CPE

Facilitators

- Kanya Allen, Hopkinsville Community College & KYSSC Senior Fellow
- John Hall, Northern Kentucky University & KYSSC Senior Fellow
- Robin Hebert, Senior Fellow of Student Access and Success, CPE
- Kausha Miller, Bluegrass Community and Technical College & KYSSC Senior Fellow
- Shane Redmond, Eastern Kentucky University & KYSSC Senior Fellow
- Trinity Walsh, Coordinator of Early Postsecondary Opportunities, CPE

DAY 2 AGENDA

FEBRUARY 11, 2025

10:45-12:00 p.m.

CONCURRENT BREAKOUT SESSIONS (CONTINUED)

Please choose one of the four breakout sessions to attend; sessions will not repeat.

Harris
Ballroom
(3rd floor)

CREATING SYSTEMS OF SUPPORT THROUGH BASIC NEEDS STRATEGIES FOR ADULT AND PARENTING STUDENTS (CONTINUE THE PATH)

Adult and parenting students face numerous challenges on their path to success. This session, led by One Parent Scholar House, will highlight holistic solutions and comprehensive support systems that can transform the lives of adult and parenting students. Panelists will focus on their strategies for improving retention, increasing credential attainment, and driving meaningful change through topics like proactive advising, wrap-around services, and community partnerships.

Presenter & Moderator

Chris Peck

Chief Advancement Officer
One Parent Scholar House

Panelist

Autumn Bishop

Student/Family Services
Specialist
GearUP Kentucky

Panelist

Lamont Campbell

Family Scholar House at
Bluegrass Community &
Technical College

Panelist

Brittany Collins

Student
Eastern Kentucky University

Panelist

Robyn Moreland

Director, Center for Student
Parents
Eastern Kentucky University

Rm 212C

CAREER READINESS AND THE QUALITY IMPERATIVE (COMPLETE THE PATH)

How can institutions seamlessly integrate career readiness into their academic programs, ensuring students graduate with both academic knowledge and the practical skills needed for the workforce? Led by an expert in the field, this session will explore how institutions can increase workforce outcomes by focusing on essential skills competencies, cross-sector collaborations, and communication outreach initiatives.

Presenter

Dr. Angela Christie

Faculty Director
Georgia State University

DAY 2 AGENDA

FEBRUARY 11, 2025

12:00-1:15 p.m.
Rm 212ABC

Closing Keynote and Lunch

TRANSFORMATIONAL LEADERSHIP: BEING STUDENT READY TO ADVANCE STUDENT SUCCESS

Transformational leadership is a powerful framework for fostering student readiness and success in today's educational environment. Dr. Tia Brown McNair will discuss how educational leaders can harness their leadership abilities to inspire success among their students, fellow practitioners and stakeholders.

Dr. Tia McNair
Partner
SOVA

1:15-1:30 p.m.
Rm 212ABC

Closing Remarks

THE ROAD AHEAD: NEXT STEPS FOR TRANSFORMATIONAL LEADERS

What will you take away from this year's Summit? What are your next steps to ensure continued momentum and success for all students?

Dr. Aaron Thompson
President
Council on Postsecondary
Education

Dr. Lilly Massa-McKinley
Assistant Vice President
Kentucky Student Success
Collaborative, CPE

VISIT THE IMPACT EXCHANGE!

Scan the QR Code to access supplemental materials and speaker details on the KYSSC Impact exChange.

